

CEO of Yonita, Inc. speaks at domain.forum in Sofia, Bulgaria

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (November 4, 2011) – Yonita Inc. announced today that Dr. Andrzej Bartosiewicz, CEO and President, will speak to over 100 delegates of the domain.forum held in Sofia, Bulgaria on November 7, 2011.

domain.forum is the first event in Bulgaria, dedicated to the ICANN new gTLD program and related issues. Forum will start with a presentation by Rod Beckstrom, the president of ICANN, followed by leading international and local experts in the domains field. domain.forum is aimed at domain registrars and Internet providers, organizations that plan a new gTLD application, IP lawyers, domain registrants and Internet users, as well as academic community.

CEO's presentation entitled "Dealing with cybersecurity threats: role of Registrars" discusses business opportunities for Registries and Registrars related to cyber-security including implementation of the Security Scanner service provided by Yonita Inc.

The conference is hosted by UNINET and REGISTER.BG. UNINET is a Bulgarian association of domain registrars, working since 2007 towards creation and introduction of an Internet top-level domain, written with Cyrillic characters. REGISTER.BG is the organization to which has been delegated the management of the country code top-level domain .bg.
